What is it Worth?
with Dr. Lori

Hate art and antiques? Tired of all those silly stories you see on TV antiques shows about pieces of junk? Don't believe news reports about million dollar prices for items found behind a picture frame? Know a family member who buys antiques that they like and you think their stuff is just plain ugly? Attend Dr. Lori's "Hate Art & Antiques?" comedy tour and laugh with your friend or spouse about their "collection of clutter".

Appraisals will be done at $5.00 per item, limit two items.
