b. Aram Ecker, Winding Road – noted that his son was given a peep when he was one-year old. He also read a letter from Jeff Chomnuk and himself as Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Pottstown Borough Authority in opposition of changing the Animal Ordinance and in opposition of allowing chickens or farm animals in the Borough. The letter outlined the dangers of wildlife, water runoff and detriment to the sewer system in the Borough and indicated such action would lower property values in the Borough.

c. Tom Winterbottom, King Street – noted that Al’s Heart officials may be coming before Council to request an extension of its agreement.

She also advised that the businesses expressed a concern on seeing new homeless individuals throughout the downtown.

Ms. Lee-Clark provided an update on the former Pottstown Plating Works property. She noted that Council previously provided a conditional relief of taxes on the property, based on an acceptable business plan for the property. Ms. Lee-Clark explained the delay with DEP approval and advised that as of February 25, 2021, a final clean-up acceptance plan was approved by DEP. An application, known as the ISRP funding has been submitted. She added that Redevelopment Authority holds title to the property until clean-up is completed. Motion carried: 7 ayes.

b. Ordinance Review Committee - Animal Ordinance – Motion by Councilor Kirkland, seconded by Councilor Vanni to authorize the Ordinance Review Committee and the Solicitor to review the existing Animal Ordinance and suggest possible amendments.

Councilor Vanni commented that the Committee should take another look at this issue. She is open to people’s varying opinions but not open to bullying techniques.

Councilor Procsal advised that this has been discussed and reviewed thoroughly. He added that recommendations from the Committee have consistently been accepted by Council during his time as Chairman of this Committee and changes always come at a cost. He added that any changes to this ordinance would be to satisfy people’s hobbies and would also come as a cost to taxpayers. He suggested that another Councilor, possibly one that voted to send this back to the Committee, would be assigned as well.

Councilor Lindsay commented that the Animal Ordinance needs a review.

Councilor Kirkland agreed that the entire Ordinance needs a review. He added that Council should be looking for ways to allow residents to have chickens, not look for ways to not allow them and should have an open mind to find a solution. He also expressed a concern regarding threatening emails being sent to Councilors from other government officials.

Mayor Henrick commended the resident for coming to Council with a problem and also a solution. She also noted that she had a conversation with the local SPCA officials and they were pleased with the proposal presented.

President Weand advised that he was informed of a recent incident, wherein a resident was in violation of the ordinance having chickens and ducks and now complaining that a fox broke in and killed his ducks. The incident occurred in proximity to Franklin Elementary School, which is a concern for students in that area.

President Weand requested a roll-call vote.

c. Meeting Rules of Council – Motion by Councilor Kirkland, seconded by Councilor Procsal to amend the Meeting Rules of Order for Borough Council Meetings, changing Rule No. 10.

Solicitor Garner advised that the change would allow comments to be up to five minutes, not three, if there were five or less speakers signed to speak. He also explained that at any time a Councilor can make a motion to suspend the three-minute rule and extend the time for a resident to speak. A motion and a second would be required, along with five members of Council in agreement.

Councilor Procsal noted that it may not be necessary to change the rules.

Councilor Lindsay agreed and suggested that a motion to suspend the rules could by made.

Councilor Vanni added that there is no need to waste time if other options are already in the rules.

Councilor Paules questioned as to how a speaker would know they can get additional time to speak.

President Weand requested a roll-call vote.
