

PUBLIC SERVICE RECOGNITION WEEK

In honor of the millions of public employees at the federal, state, county, and local levels:

WHEREAS: Americans are served every single day by public servants at the federal, state, county and local levels. These unsung heroes do the work that keeps our nation working; and

WHEREAS: Public employees take not only jobs, but oaths; and

WHEREAS: Many public servants, including military personnel, police officers, firefighters, border patrol officers, embassy employees, health care professionals and others, risk their lives each day in service to the people of the United States and around the world; and

WHEREAS: Public servants include teachers, doctors and scientists, train conductors and astronauts, nurses and safety inspectors, laborers, computer technicians and social workers and countless other occupations. Day in and day out they provide the diverse services demanded by the American people of their government with efficiency and integrity; and

WHEREAS: Without these public servants at every level, continuity would be impossible in a democracy that regularly changes its leaders and elected officials.

In witness whereof, I have set therefore my hand and the executive seal of this Borough on this 8th day of May, 2019.
